

Mathematics

During the assessment week students will complete a recall test consisting of 20 questions. This will be a similar format to the recall test that they complete on a weekly basis in lessons. The 20 questions will cover a range of topics that they have covered throughout the year.