

Here is a summary of changes for the History GCSE examinations in 2022.

- Students will be sitting 3 exams instead of 4
- These will be on the First World War, America and Health & People.
- The Elizabeth I unit has not been taught and will not be examined.
- There has been no reduction in content for the remaining topics.
- There will not be any pre-released material regarding the content of the remaining exams.
- There will only be SPaG marks on the First World War 16 mark question.
