Saint Vincent de Paul society charity
Different religious attitudes towards abortion
Different attitudes towards stewardship and the environment

Key words:

Creation ex nihilo	creation out of nothing. Before God created the universe, nothing existed. Only God can create out of nothing.
Evolution	the process of mutation and natural selection which leads to changes in species over time to suit particular environments.
Imago Dei	in the image of God. The belief that human beings are uniquely a reflection of God's personhood. Unlike the other animals, human beings are rational, free and moral.
Inspiration	"God breathed" The belief that the Spirit of God guides an individual to act or write what is good and true.
Omnipotence	the belief that God is all powerful.
Revelation	the word used to describe all of the ways in which God makes himself known to human beings. Christians believe that God does this finally and fully in the person of Jesus Christ.
Stewardship	the duty to care for creation responsibly, as stewards rather than consumers, and to protect it for future generations.
Transcendence	existing outside of space and time; God exists in a way that makes him nothing like anything else that exists, above and beyond creation.

Key Questions: Learn the answers to these key questions

1. Why do Catholics think they should be stewards?	Genesis tell us the the earth is a gift from God, we were told to 'take care of it', not being sustainable is stealing from future generations (universal destination of goods)
2. What are Humanist attitudes towards the environment?	Good without God - we don't need God to know that we should look after the planet. Speciesism - all life should be protected and preserved not just humans Population control - there are things we can do to protect the planet - sustainability
3. What is human dignity?	At the heart of Catholic social teaching is human dignity. Catholics believe that humans were created in the image and likeness of God, and that each human life is sacred so it should be treated with dignity
4. How does Saint Vincent de Paul help others?	They help the lonely or bereaved and the housebound; visits to individuals and families, to the sick at home or in hospitals and hospices, to residential homes and to offenders' institutions. Visiting housebound elderly people to prevent them from feeling isolated. Organising children's camps for children from poor or troubled homes, and holiday schemes to provide a break for family carers, to give poor families a holiday or a break.
6. What is a Catholic attitude towards abortion?	Life begins at conception so all forms of abortion are considered to break the 10 commandments and destroy God's gift of life.
7. What is a Jewish attitude towards abortion?	Unborn life should be protected: 'Before I formed you in the womb I knew you' but not at the cost of the mother - Pikuach Nefesh
