Matthew 18:20

We gather today to reflect on the life of Pope Francis.

LET US BEGIN OUR
TUTOR GROUP PRAYER & LITURGY

I invite you all to say and make the Sign of the Cross

*In the name of the Father and of the Son
and of the Holy Spirit
Amen.*

At Blessed Edward's we all strive to be people of good character.

VIRTUE OF THE WEEK

Kind - means to be generous and to offer help; to think of others before yourself.

POPE FRANCIS DIARY QUOTE OF THE WEEK

The Holy Spirit transforms us, creates harmony and unity, and gives us courage and joy for mission.

WE LISTEN

From the moment of his election, Pope Francis indicated that he would do things differently, and over the last 12 years the Catholic Church has seen a Pope truly for the people. He was determined to favour humility over pomp and grandeur and set a mission for his 1.2 billion flock; "Oh, how I would like a poor Church, and for the poor". This mission could be seen in many of his sermons and speeches where he often called for social inclusion and called out governments that failed to pay attention to the poorest in society. His death on the 21st of April 2025 has shaken Catholics of the world as they have poured out tributes to him over this last week. May he rest in peace.

Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. Amen.

WE LISTEN

Last week was International Girls in ICT Day. The theme this year is 'Leadership' to underscore the critical need for strong female roles in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM careers). The goals for this day is to encourage girls and young women to pursue STEM education, inspire girls and young women to work in STEM careers and engage the community and promote collaboration through partnerships.

In Genesis 1 we are told that men and women were both made in the image and likeness of God. Therefore, it is important that we all work to ensure a fairness in all areas for men and women and show all people that roles are not always purely for one particular gender.

WE LISTEN

Pope Francis is known for being different to any Pope before him. He shows his love of all people, regardless of faith, gender or ethnicity. This can be seen through his work with other faiths, and most notably with his actions during Holy Week. Last year, Pope Francis washed the feet of 12 female inmates, notably including no men in the ritual, during a Maundy Thursday service. In recent years he has also washed the feet of those from other religions. His message is to never tire of asking for God's forgiveness and love.

WE LISTEN

Today is the 1st of May. The month of May is dedicated to Mary within the Catholic Church and has been for centuries. This is to honour her life and devotion to God as she willingly accepted God's plan for her to be the Mother of Jesus. Many Catholics look and pray to her for comfort, guidance and in awe at her life that was completely focused on God. This month we honour her by dedicating time praying to her each day.

Your Form Tutor will now ask you to reflect on the words of the examen.

EXAMEN

1. GIVE THANKS.
2. Ask for help.
3. Reflect.
4. Say Sorry.
5. DECIDE.

Examen Closing Prayer (1)

O God, I find myself at the beginning of another day. I do not know what it will bring. Please help me to be ready for whatever it may be. If I am to stand up, help me to stand bravely. If I am to sit still, help me to sit quietly. If I am to lie low, help me to do it patiently. If I am to do nothing, let me do it gallantly.

I pray just for today, for these twenty-four hours, for the ability to cooperate with others according to the way Jesus taught us to live. "Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

Examen Closing Prayer (2)

May these words that he taught us become more than words. Please free my thinking and feelings and the thinking and feelings of others, from all forms of self-will, self-centeredness, dishonesty, and deception. Along with my brothers and sisters, I need this freedom to make my choices today according to your desires.

Send your Spirit to inspire me in time of doubt and indecision so that together, we can walk along your path.

Amen.
