DIARY QUOTE OF THE WEEK

Please, thank you and sorry are words that open up the road to a good family life.

WE LISTEN

Martyrs are people who died because of their testimony for Jesus or faith in Jesus. In the early years of the Christian church, this often occurred through death by sawing, stoning, crucifixion, burning at the stake or other forms of torture and capital punishment. The first Christian martyrs are believed to be St Stephen and St James. In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus said, "They will be cruel to you, and will put you to death: and you will be hated by all nations because of my name". Many Christians are still persecuted for their faith all over the world.

St Charles Lwanga and Companions are the 22 Martyrs of Uganda who were killed by orders from King Kabaka Mwanga II between November 15 1885 to January 27 1887. Their feast day is celebrated on June 3 every year in the Catholic Church.

According to the Pope, prayer can be a part of all our actions, giving them meaning and peace. It transforms our lives, appeases anger, sustains love, multiplies joy, and instills the strength to forgive. Consistent daily prayer can heal the soul like medicine heals the body. Prayer gives meaning to our actions.

WE LISTEN

World Environment Day is celebrated annually on 5 June and encourages awareness and action for the protection of the environment. It is supported by many non-governmental organizations, businesses, government entities, and represents the primary United Nations outreach day supporting the environment.

Christians believe that God gave humans the responsibility to care for the world that he created. For Christians raising awareness isn't just something we should do on 5th June every year, but something we should do everyday.

In his encyclical Laudato Si, Pope Francis said we must pledge our commitment to raising awareness of stewardship so that we care for our common home together.

Your Form Tutor will now ask you to reflect on the words of the examen.

EXAMEN

1. GIVE THANKS.
2. Ask for help.
3. Reflect.
4. Say Sorry.
5. DECIDE.

Examen Closing Prayer (1)

O God, I find myself at the beginning of another day. I do not know what it will bring. Please help me to be ready for whatever it may be. If I am to stand up, help me to stand bravely. If I am to sit still, help me to sit quietly. If I am to lie low, help me to do it patiently. If I am to do nothing, let me do it gallantly.

I pray just for today, for these twenty-four hours, for the ability to cooperate with others according to the way Jesus taught us to live. "Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

Examen Closing Prayer (2)

May these words that he taught us become more than words. Please free my thinking and feelings and the thinking and feelings of others, from all forms of self-will, self-centeredness, dishonesty, and deception. Along with my brothers and sisters, I need this freedom to make my choices today according to your desires.

Send your Spirit to inspire me in time of doubt and indecision so that together, we can walk along your path.

Amen.
