DIARY QUOTE OF THE WEEK

I ask you to ensure that humanity is served by wealth and not ruled by it.

WE LISTEN

Sunday was the feast of Saints Peter and Paul. The name PETER comes from the Greek word, 'Petros', meaning "Rock". Peter and his faith would be a rock on which Jesus would build his church, even though Peter would run away and deny knowing Jesus in his hour of need.

Peter served as the leader of the first group of Christians. He travelled to the centre of the Roman Empire, and there became the first bishop of the city of Rome.

The bishop of Rome is now called the "pope", a word which means "father", recognising his leadership.

WE LISTEN

PAUL used to be called "Saul" and had been a Jewish official who hunted down Christians. He was one of those responsible for their deaths, but then had a vision that changed his life, and he became a Christian. Being given a new name, "Paul", was a sign of being called to live a new kind of life.

WE LISTEN

Christians believe that all human beings are made in the image of God. This is called Imago Dei. As you go through your day do you try to see God in the people you meet? Sometimes it can be hard to see God in others, especially if they are doing something hurtful to us. However, Jesus told us to pray for all people, even those who hurt us, when he said 'pray for your enemies'. This is because everyone is made Imago Dei and has dignity. Today we think about how we can see God in the people we meet:

*As you walk beside me, Lord, lead me to recognise you
in all those you place into my life
this day.*

St. Thomas, also known as Thomas the Apostle or "Doubting Thomas," was one of the Twelve Apostles of Jesus. He is best known for initially doubting Jesus' resurrection until he saw and touched Jesus' wounds. According to tradition, he traveled to India to spread Christianity and is considered the patron saint of India.

Thomas' initial doubt and subsequent faith resonate with many believers who experience moments of skepticism in their spiritual journey. His story shows that doubt is a natural part of faith and can lead to a deeper understanding and stronger belief

EXAMEN

1. GIVE THANKS.
2. Ask for help.
3. Reflect.
4. Say Sorry.
5. DECIDE.

Examen Closing Prayer (1)

O God, I find myself at the beginning of another day. I do not know what it will bring. Please help me to be ready for whatever it may be. If I am to stand up, help me to stand bravely. If I am to sit still, help me to sit quietly. If I am to lie low, help me to do it patiently. If I am to do nothing, let me do it gallantly.

I pray just for today, for these twenty-four hours, for the ability to cooperate with others according to the way Jesus taught us to live. "Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

Examen Closing Prayer (2)

May these words that he taught us become more than words. Please free my thinking and feelings and the thinking and feelings of others, from all forms of self-will, self-centeredness, dishonesty, and deception. Along with my brothers and sisters, I need this freedom to make my choices today according to your desires.

Send your Spirit to inspire me in time of doubt and indecision so that together, we can walk along your path.

Amen.
