COLLEGE DIARY QUOTE OF THE WEEK

What does it profit you to give to God one thing if he asks of you another? Consider what it is that God wants and then do it.

St John of the Cross

WE GATHER

Let us sit still
and have a few moments of reverence
as we light our TUTOR GROUP CANDLE.

We gather today to reflect upon the effects of war.

THE WORD

"Nation will not take up sword against nation, nor will they train for war anymore." — Isaiah 2:4

War changes everything. It breaks families, destroys homes, and leaves scars that last for generations. Even when it's far away, its effects reach us—through stories, history, and the people who carry its weight. But war also reveals something powerful: the strength of the human spirit. Amid destruction, we see courage, sacrifice, and longing for peace. We remember those who fought, those who fled, and those who stood up for what was right.

We are invited to reflect not only on the cost of war, but on our role in building peace—wherever we are. We can choose empathy over anger, dialogue over division, and kindness over conflict.

THE WORD

Scripture linked to our
Virtue of the week

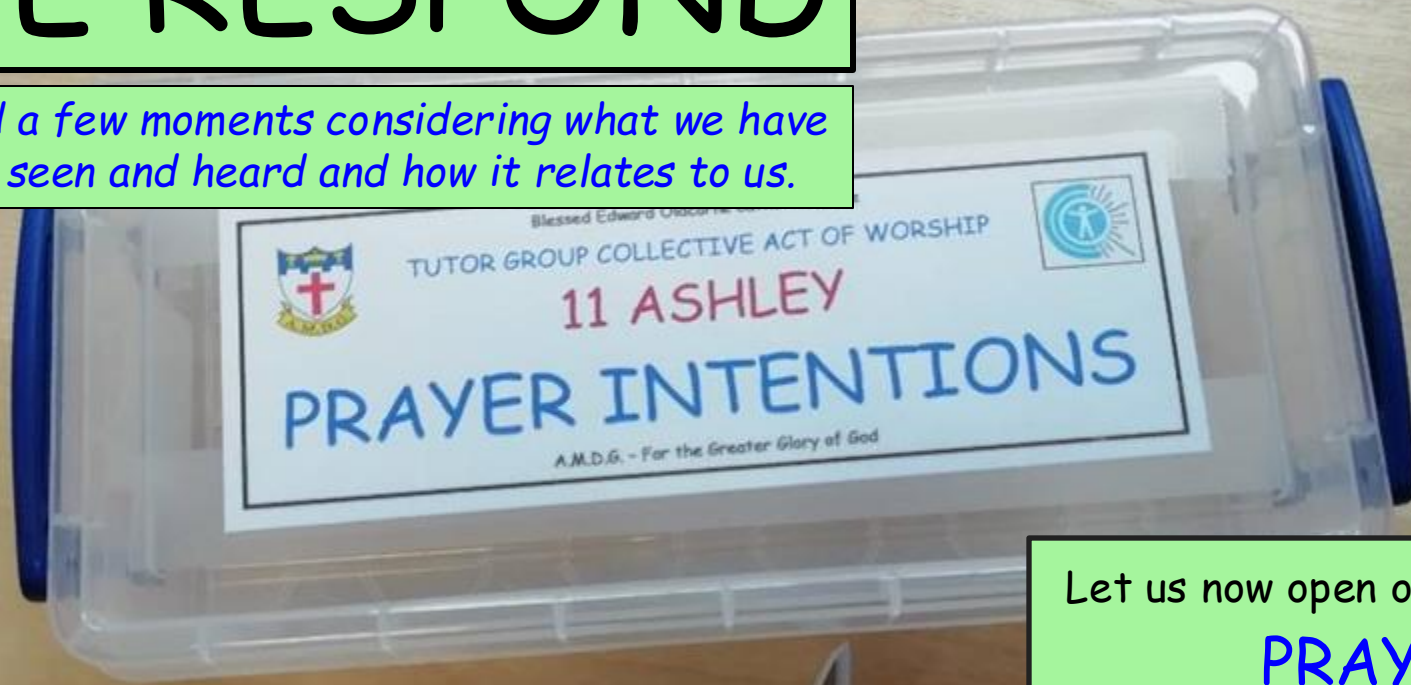

KIND - Generous,
helpful and thinking
about other people's feelings.

A photograph of a desert landscape at night. The sky is dark blue with many stars. In the foreground, there are sand dunes and some small, dark bushes. A bright, glowing cross is visible on a dune in the middle ground, casting a warm light on the sand. The text is overlaid on the right side of the image.

AND BE KIND TO ONE ANOTHER, TENDERHEARTED, FORGIVING ONE
ANOTHER, EVEN AS GOD IN CHRIST
FORGAVE YOU.
EPHESIANS 4:32

WE RESPOND

Spend a few moments considering what we have just seen and heard and how it relates to us.

Let us now open our tutor group

We gather today to reflect upon Remembrance.

THE WORD

"Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends." — John 15:13

World War I, also known as the Great War, ended on November 11, 1918, after four years of devastating conflict. It claimed the lives of over 16 million people and left millions more wounded. The war reshaped nations and changed the course of history.

Each year, on Remembrance Day, we pause to honour those who served and sacrificed. We wear poppies, observe silence, and reflect on the cost of war—not just in lives lost, but in the pain carried by families and communities.

At 11.00 today
the whole school
will be holding a 2-minute silence.

Two minutes of silence, a lifetime
of remembrance

A Prayer for Remembrance

Ever-living God,
We remember those whom you have gathered from the storm of war
into the peace of your presence;
may that same peace calm our fears,
bring justice to all peoples
and establish harmony among the nations,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

THE WORD

"Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven." -
*Matthew 5:16

Marie Curie's work in physics and chemistry, especially her discovery of radioactivity, revolutionised science and medicine. She showed that determination, humility, and a love for learning can overcome even the greatest obstacles. Her life reminds us that impact doesn't come from status, but from service, integrity, and resilience. Her story echoes the call to use our gifts for the good of others and is a powerful example of how one person's dedication can change the world.

WE GATHER

Let us sit still

reverence

TUTOR GROUP CANDLE.

We gather today to
reflect upon this week's virtue - kind.

THE WORD

"Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you." — Ephesians 4:32

Kindness reflects God's heart. In a world that often feels rushed, divided, or indifferent, kindness stands out like a light in the darkness. It has the power to soften hardened hearts, heal wounds, and build bridges where walls once stood.

Jesus modelled kindness —whether with the outcast, the sinner, or the stranger. His compassion was never conditional.

Kindness isn't just big gestures —a smile, a word of encouragement, a helping hand—can ripple far beyond what we see. It requires a willing heart.

 In a world where you can be anything
be kind

THE EXAMEN

St. Ignatius of Loyola

Your Form Tutor will now ask you to reflect on the words of the examen.

EXAMEN

1. GIVE THANKS.
2. Ask for help.
3. Reflect.
4. Say Sorry.
5. DECIDE.

Examen Closing Prayer (1)

O God, I find myself at the beginning of another day.
I do not know what it will bring.

Please help me to be ready for whatever it may be.

If I am to stand up, help me to stand bravely.

If I am to sit still, help me to sit quietly.

If I am to lie low, help me to do it patiently.

If I am to do nothing, let me do it gallantly.

I pray just for today, for these twenty-four hours, for the ability to cooperate with others according to the way Jesus taught us to live.

"Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

Examen Closing Prayer (2)

May these words that he taught us become more than words.

Please free my thinking and feelings and the thinking and feelings of others, from all forms of self-will, self-centeredness, dishonesty, and deception.

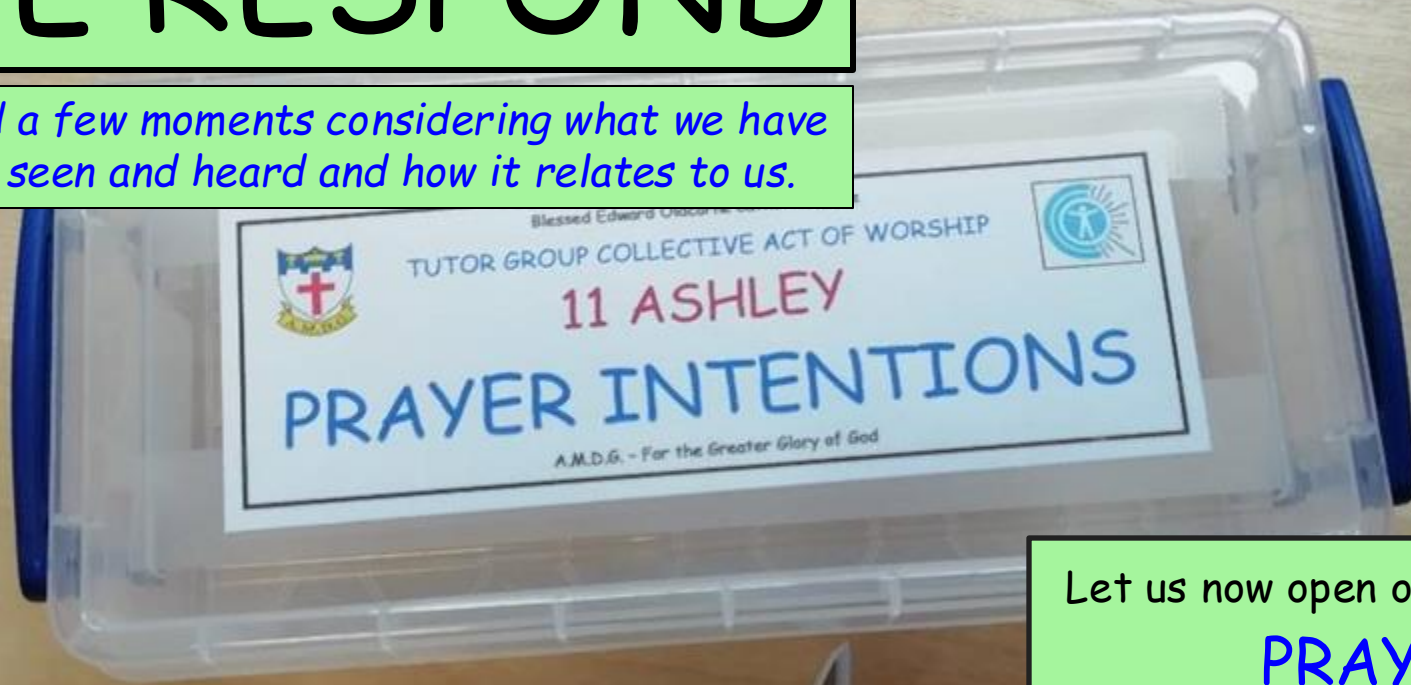

Along with my brothers and sisters, I need this freedom to make my choices today according to your desires.

Send your Spirit to inspire me in time of doubt and indecision so that together, we can walk along your path.

Amen.

MISSION

We rejoice and go forth to live out the Gospel of the Lord in our lives.

We have just listened to a prayer of reflective thanks and discernment.

It involves reviewing the day's events, noticing God's presence in moments of both joy and difficulty.

We now ask for guidance on how we can live our lives more fully in accordance with God's will.

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

EXAMEN
