TUTOR GROUP CANDLE.

We gather today to reflect upon how our faith can help us.

THE WORD

"I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." - Philippians 4:13

Faith isn't just for the easy days—it's for those difficult times too. It's the quiet strength that says, "I will keep going, because I trust God is with me."

Harriet Tubman is a remarkable example. Born into slavery in the early 1800s, she escaped and risked her life repeatedly to lead others to freedom through the Underground Railroad. Tubman credited her courage and guidance to her deep faith in God. She once said, "I always told God, 'I'm going to hold steady on You, and You've got to see me through.'" Her trust in divine protection gave her the strength to face danger and injustice with unwavering resolve.

THE WORD

"Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom." —

Psalm 90:12

Time is one thing we all receive equally, yet how we use it defines the depth of our lives. Every moment is an opportunity to grow, serve, love, and reflect God's presence in the world.

Deitrich Bonhoeffer understood the urgency and holiness of time. His words challenge us to live fully—not just efficiently. To embrace joy, creativity, and even suffering as part of a life well-lived.

"Time is the most precious gift in our possession, for it is the most irrevocable. Time lost is time when we have not lived a full human life, time unenriched by experience, creative endeavour, enjoyment, and suffering."

Let us sit still
and have a few moments of reverence
as we light our
TUTOR GROUP CANDLE.

We gather today to reflect upon this week's virtue - loving.

THE WORD

"Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins." — 1 Peter 4:8

Love is not just a feeling—it's a choice, a commitment, and a reflection of God's nature. Jesus said the greatest commandment is to love God, and the second is to love others as ourselves. When we love deeply, we extend grace, offer forgiveness, and build bridges where there were once walls.

Love isn't always easy. It asks us to be patient, kind, and selfless. But it's also the most powerful force we have. It heals wounds, restores relationships, and brings light into dark places.

Let us sit still

reverence

We gather today to reflect upon Universal Children's Day.

THE WORD

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." — Matthew 19:14

Universal Children's Day is a reminder of the value, dignity, and potential of every child. In the UK and around the world, this day calls us to protect, nurture, and uplift the youngest among us—not just in policy, but in practice.

Jesus welcomed children with open arms, showing us that they are not only precious but central to His kingdom. Their innocence, curiosity, and trust reflect the kind of faith we're all called to have.

Examen Closing Prayer (1)

O God, I find myself at the beginning of another day.
I do not know what it will bring.

Please help me to be ready for whatever it may be.

If I am to stand up, help me to stand bravely.

If I am to sit still, help me to sit quietly.

If I am to lie low, help me to do it patiently.

If I am to do nothing, let me do it gallantly.

I pray just for today, for these twenty-four hours, for the ability to cooperate with others according to the way Jesus taught us to live.

"Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

Examen Closing Prayer (2)

May these words that he taught us become more than words.

Please free my thinking and feelings and the thinking and feelings of others, from all forms of self-will, self-centeredness, dishonesty, and deception.

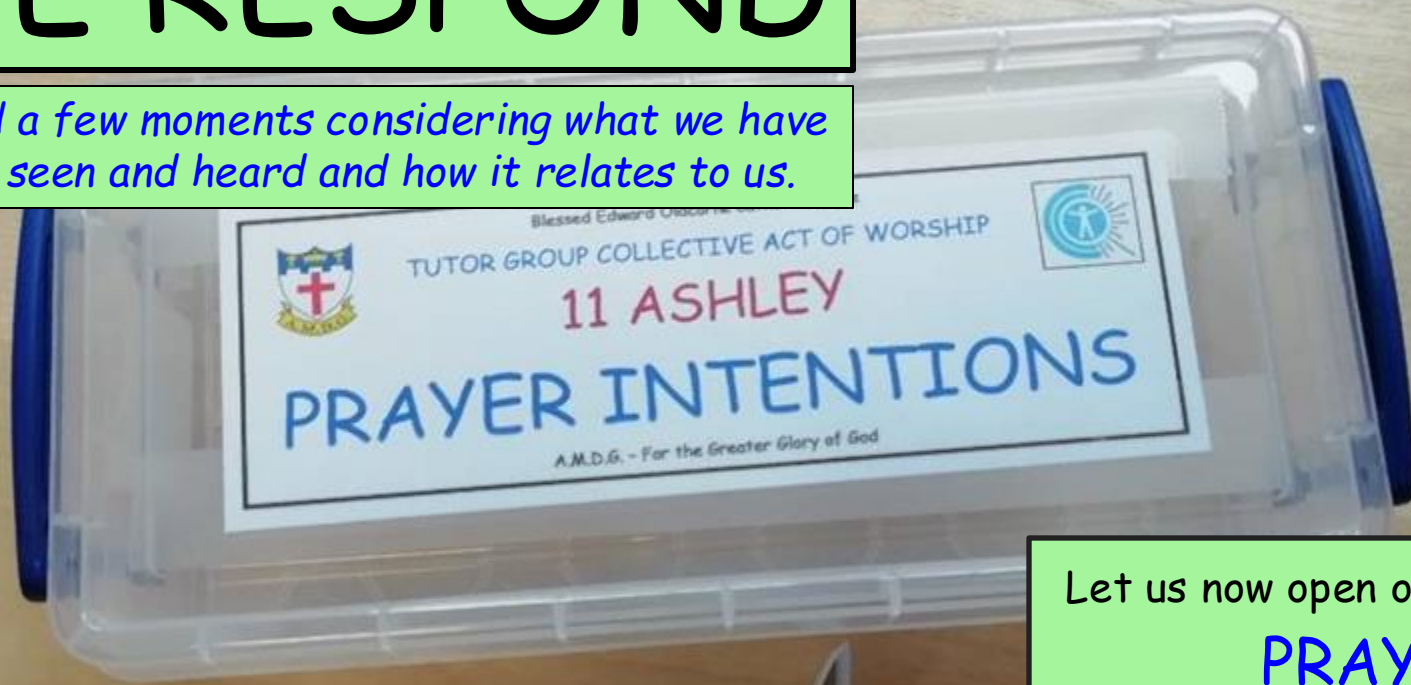

Along with my brothers and sisters, I need this freedom to make my choices today according to your desires.

Send your Spirit to inspire me in time of doubt and indecision so that together, we can walk along your path.

Amen.
