COLLEGE DIARY QUOTE OF THE WEEK

I invite all Christians at this very moment, to a renewed personal encounter with Jesus Christ today.

Pope Francis

WE GATHER

Let us sit still and have a few moments of reverence as we light our TUTOR GROUP CANDLE.

We gather today to reflect upon the Solemnity of Christ the King.

THE WORD

"His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed." — Daniel 7:14

The Solemnity of Christ the King reminds us that Jesus is not only Savior but Sovereign. In a world of shifting powers and fragile kingdoms, Christ's reign is eternal, just, and rooted in love. He is the King who wore a crown of thorns, who rules not by force but by sacrifice.

Yesterday's feast, celebrated at the end of the liturgical year, invites people to re-centre their lives under His lordship. It's a call to allegiance—not to earthly empires, but to the Kingdom of God, where mercy triumphs over judgment and peace over power.

We gather today to reflect upon how people remember Jesus.

THE WORD

"Fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith." — Hebrews 12:2

Across the world, believers have created and preserved sacred artifacts and statues to help remember Jesus—not as mere decorations, but as spiritual signposts. From the towering Christ the Redeemer in Brazil to the tender Pietà by Michelangelo in Vatican City, these works of art invite us to pause, reflect, and reconnect with the heart of Christ.

These symbols transcend time and culture, reminding us that Jesus is not confined to history—He is alive in people's hearts, communities, and their worship.

We gather today to reflect upon the importance of praying for others.

THE WORD

"I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people." — 1 Timothy 2:1

Praying for others is one of the most loving and powerful acts we can offer. It's a way of lifting someone, even when we can't change their circumstances ourselves. Intercession is not just a spiritual duty—it's a gift of compassion, a quiet act of faith, thinking of others and their needs. Jesus Himself prayed for others—His disciples, the crowds, even those who crucified Him. When we pray for others, we follow His example and become part of God's healing work in the world.

We gather today to reflect upon the past liturgical year.

THE WORD

"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End." — Revelation 22:13

As the liturgical year draws to a close, we're invited to pause and reflect. This season culminates with the Solemnity of Christ the King, reminding us that Jesus reigns over all time and history. It's a moment to look back with gratitude and forward with hope.

The Church, in her wisdom, gives us this rhythm to remind us that every ending in Christ is also a beginning. As we prepare to enter Advent, we're called to renew our hearts, deepen our faith, and ready ourselves for the coming of the Lord.
