St John Chrysostom

WE GATHER

Let us sit still
and have a few moments of
reverence
as we light our
TUTOR GROUP CANDLE.

We gather today to reflect upon the Epiphany of the Lord.

THE WORD

Today, 6th January 2026, is the Feast of the Epiphany, when the 3 Wise Men visited the baby Jesus.

It is also the chosen day for the Jubilee of Hope 2025 to conclude, with Pope Leo closing the Holy Door in St. Peter's Basilica.

This special year, focused on grace, forgiveness, and renewal with worldwide celebrations and pilgrimages.

Pope Francis opening the Holy Doors to mark the beginning of the Jubilee Year on Christmas Eve 2024.

THE WORD

"They saw the child with his mother Mary, and they bowed down and worshiped him. Then they opened their treasures and presented him with gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh." — Matthew 2:11

Epiphany means "revealing." It's a moment when the light of Christ is made known to all nations.

The Epiphany celebrates the visit of the Magi—wise men from the East—who followed a star to find the newborn Jesus. Their journey reminds us that Christ came not just for one group of people, but for the whole world. The gifts they brought were symbols of honour, worship, and sacrifice.

WE GATHER

Let us sit still
and have a few moments of
reverence
as we light our
TUTOR GROUP CANDLE.

We gather today to reflect upon the conclusion of our Jubilee Year.

THE WORD

"Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful." — Luke 6:36

The Jubilee Year is a sacred time of renewal, mercy, and grace. It invites us to return to God with open hearts, to forgive and be forgiven, and to live with deeper compassion. As this special year closes, we don't leave its spirit behind—we carry it forward.

We've been reminded that mercy is not just a theme, but a way of life. The doors of grace have been wide open, and now we are called to keep them open in our own hearts—toward others, toward ourselves, and toward the world.

The end of the Jubilee Year is not an ending, but a beginning. A chance to live what we've received: healing, hope, and the joy of reconciliation.

WE GATHER

Let us sit still
and have a few moments of
reverence
as we light our
TUTOR GROUP CANDLE.

We gather today to
reflect upon the life of Alexander Fleming.

THE WORD

"Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace." — 1 Peter 4:10

Fleming's discovery of penicillin in 1928 was a turning point in medical history. His work saved millions of lives and continues to impact healthcare today. His discovery came through careful observation, curiosity, and a deep commitment to helping others.

He didn't seek fame—he sought solutions. His story reminds us that even quiet dedication can lead to world-changing results. It also teaches that talents, no matter how small they seem, can be used to serve others and bring healing.

The scripture reminds us we are called to be stewards of the gifts we've been given. Whether in science, art, kindness, or leadership, we can make a difference when we use our abilities with purpose and compassion.

Examen Closing Prayer (1)

O God, I find myself at the beginning of another day.
I do not know what it will bring.

Please help me to be ready for whatever it may be.

If I am to stand up, help me to stand bravely.

If I am to sit still, help me to sit quietly.

If I am to lie low, help me to do it patiently.

If I am to do nothing, let me do it gallantly.

I pray just for today, for these twenty-four hours, for the ability to cooperate with others according to the way Jesus taught us to live.

"Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

Examen Closing Prayer (2)

May these words that he taught us become more than words.

Please free my thinking and feelings and the thinking and feelings of others, from all forms of self-will, self-centeredness, dishonesty, and deception.

Along with my brothers and sisters, I need this freedom to make my choices today according to your desires.

Send your Spirit to inspire me in time of doubt and indecision so that together, we can walk along your path.

Amen.
