COLLEGE DIARY

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

Worry about nothing; seek only to gather flowers; the flowers of God's grace and blessing; moment by moment; day by day.

St Therese of Lisieux

WE GATHER

Let us sit still and have a few moments of reverence
as we light our
TUTOR GROUP CANDLE.

We gather today to reflect on Sunday's Gospel

THE WORD

In Sunday's Gospel we heard:

Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by John. But John tried to deter him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?" Jesus replied, "Let it be so now; it is proper for us to do this to fulfil all righteousness." Then John consented.

As soon as Jesus was baptized, he went up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased."

We gather today to reflect on the virtue of the week - to be hopeful

THE WORD

"We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure." — Hebrews 6:19

Hope is something every human heart longs for. Life can feel uncertain, like waves tossing us about, but hope steadies us. The writer of Hebrews describes hope as an anchor—something that holds us firm even when storms rage.

Hope is not fragile optimism; it is strength for today and courage for tomorrow. It reminds us that darkness is never the final word, and that renewal is always possible. Whether you see hope as God's gift or simply as the resilience of the human spirit, it is what allows us to keep moving forward, to love, and to believe in a better future..

We gather today to
reflect upon the life of
Albert Schweitzer

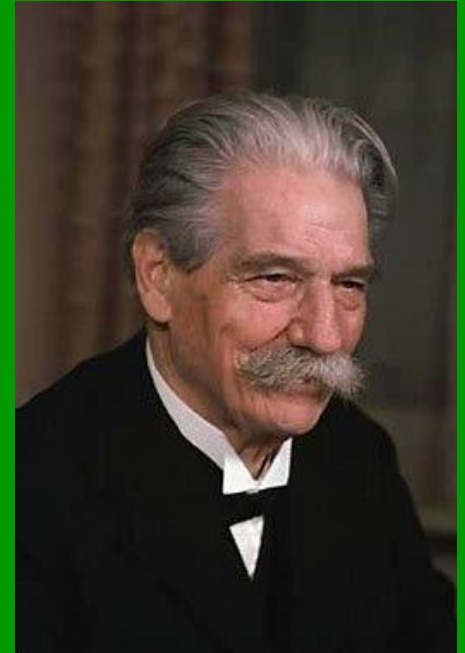

THE WORD

"Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me." - Matthew 25:40

Albert Schweitzer was born on this day in 1865. He became a world-famous organist and author and sacrificed a comfortable life in France and Germany to be a missionary doctor. In Africa he set up a hospital and leper-colony for the very poor.

He encouraged others to share his "reverence for life", growing in compassion for life in all its forms. He wrote: "By having reverence for life, we enter into a spiritual relationship with the world."

He helped lead others to see that, with love and compassion and respect for all life, people would find a greater meaning in their lives. In 1952 Doctor Albert Schweitzer was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize.

"But let justice roll on like a river, righteousness like a never-failing stream!" - Amos 5:24

Martin Luther King, the American Civil Rights leader, was born on this day in 1929 in Atlanta, Georgia, in the southern United States. 2 In the United States in 1955, people were still kept apart because of the colour of their skin.

Martin Luther King was one of the Christian leaders who opposed the laws and the attitude of discrimination, and he would eventually pay for it with his life, even though he was fully committed himself to non-violence. He said: "Love is the only force capable of transforming an enemy into a friend."

EXAMEN

1. GIVE THANKS.
2. Ask for help.
3. Reflect.
4. Say Sorry.
5. DECIDE.

Examen Closing Prayer (1)

O God, I find myself at the beginning of another day.
I do not know what it will bring.

Please help me to be ready for whatever it may be.

If I am to stand up, help me to stand bravely.

If I am to sit still, help me to sit quietly.

If I am to lie low, help me to do it patiently.

If I am to do nothing, let me do it gallantly.

I pray just for today, for these twenty-four hours, for the ability to cooperate with others according to the way Jesus taught us to live.

"Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

Examen Closing Prayer (2)

May these words that he taught us become more than words.

Please free my thinking and feelings and the thinking and feelings of others, from all forms of self-will, self-centeredness, dishonesty, and deception.

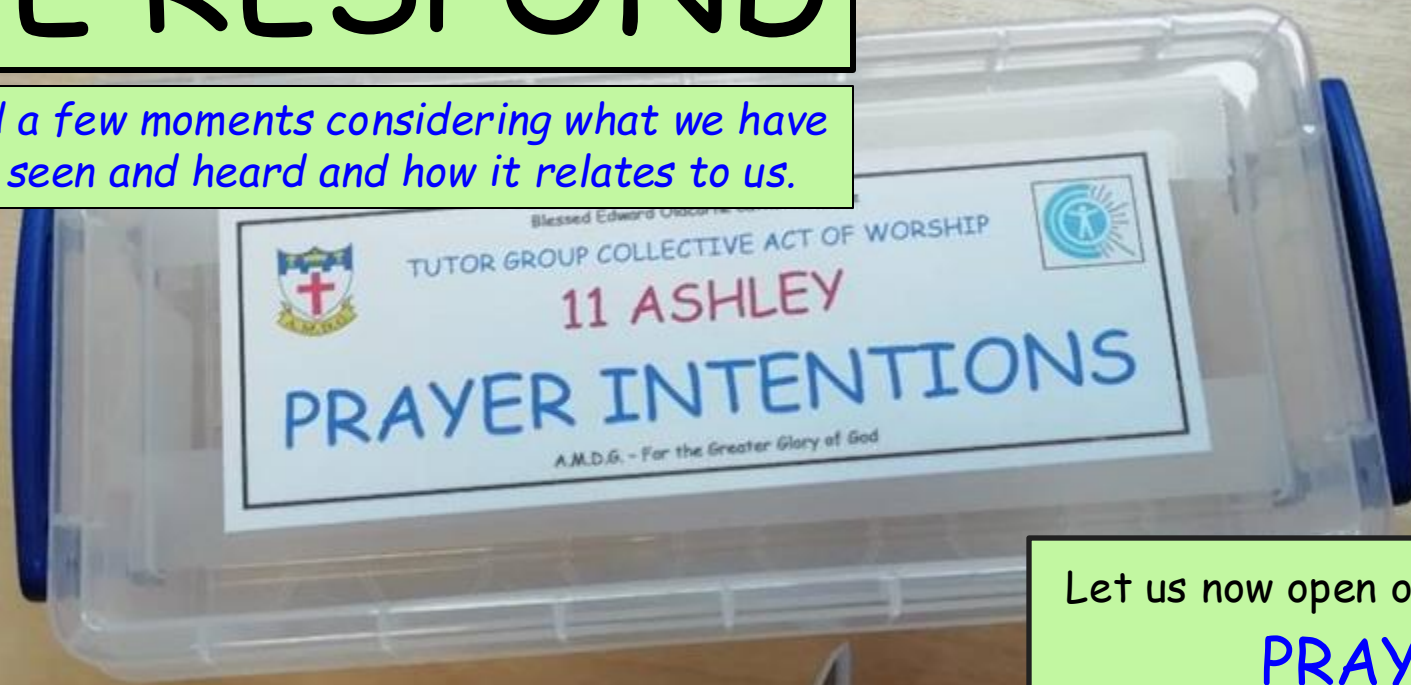

Along with my brothers and sisters, I need this freedom to make my choices today according to your desires.

Send your Spirit to inspire me in time of doubt and indecision so that together, we can walk along your path.

Amen.
