COLLEGE DIARY

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

O sacrament most holy, O sacrament divine, all praise and all thanksgiving be every moment thine.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

TUTOR GROUP OUTREACH WORK

During the Season of Lent.

THE WORD

In Matthew 17:1-9 Jesus takes his friends up a mountain, and something amazing happens - his face shines like the sun, and they see him in a new way. They finally see him as the Son of God, full of glory. God's voice said, "This is my Son, whom I love; listen to him." The Transfiguration reminds us to stop, look and listen to him. It also reminds us of something important: sometimes we need to step away from the noise of life to see things more clearly. Big moments often happen when we pause and reflect.

THE WORD

A SEASON OF RENEWAL

Lord God, our light and our salvation,
we praise you for your gifts of life and faith.
We thank you for the desire that you have planted in our heart: our yearning to see your face.
Help us to meet you in prayer,
to walk in your ways, and to speak to others of our joy
and consolation in your presence.
Give us faithfulness in the present life so that we may come to know and praise your beauty, with all our brothers and sisters in the life to come.
We make this prayer through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

We gather today to reflect upon Woman's World Day of Prayer.

THE WORD

"She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come." - Proverbs 31:25

Women's World Day of Prayer is a global movement where people from different cultures and backgrounds come together to pray for justice, peace, and unity. This day reminds us that prayer is powerful—it connects hearts across nations and brings hope where there is struggle.

Proverbs 31:25 speaks of strength and dignity. These qualities are not just for women but for all who seek to live with courage and compassion. Strength means standing firm in times of challenge; dignity means treating others with respect and valuing ourselves. When we pray together, we share these qualities and build a world where everyone is cared for.

We gather today to reflect upon World Book Day.

THE WORD

"The tongue has the power of life and death." - Proverbs 18:21

World Book Day celebrates the joy of reading and the power of words. Books can teach us, inspire us, and even change the way we see the world. The Bible reminds us that words are powerful—they can build people up or tear them down. Just like the stories we read, our own words can bring hope, kindness, and life to others.

Whether you love novels, comics, or biographies, remember that every word matters. Today is a chance to value stories and use our words to make the world better.

THE EXAMEN

Your Form Tutor will now ask you to reflect on the words of the examen.

EXAMEN

1. GIVE THANKS.
2. Ask for help.
3. Reflect.
4. Say Sorry.
5. DECIDE.

Examen Closing Prayer (1)

O God, I find myself at the beginning of another day.
I do not know what it will bring.

Please help me to be ready for whatever it may be.

If I am to stand up, help me to stand bravely.

If I am to sit still, help me to sit quietly.

If I am to lie low, help me to do it patiently.

If I am to do nothing, let me do it gallantly.

I pray just for today, for these twenty-four hours, for the ability to cooperate with others according to the way Jesus taught us to live.

"Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

Examen Closing Prayer (2)

May these words that he taught us become more than words.

Please free my thinking and feelings and the thinking and feelings of others, from all forms of self-will, self-centeredness, dishonesty, and deception.

Along with my brothers and sisters, I need this freedom to make my choices today according to your desires.

Send your Spirit to inspire me in time of doubt and indecision so that together, we can walk along your path.

Amen.
